

ANANTH KRISHNAN

Hi...

As a creative professional, I derive joy from generating innovative ideas and possess a discerning eye for aesthetics and intricate details. My profound passion for film fuels my eagerness to delve into the art of film making. Alongside being a digital artist, I have a deep affection for concept art, consistently endeavoring to seamlessly integrate traditional art styles into digital platforms. I find character design influenced by real-life personalities particularly captivating. Moreover, my keen interest extends to the game design and advertising industry.
